Teaching in Live CME Activities (2 credits per hour of interaction)
Credit may only be claimed for teaching only at a live activity that is designated for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. This credit is for preparing and presenting an original presentation and may only be claimed once for a repeated presentation. You cannot claim credit on this form if you have already been awarded credit for the same presentation from the accredited provider of the activity.

Documentation: Attach a copy of the page(s) used by the accredited CME provider to announce or describe the activity which includes the name of the speaker, accredit CME provider, AMA credit designation statement, date and location for each activity submitted.

Number of activities submitted: _____ Total hours of presentation: _____ Number of credits (hours x 2): _____

Certificate dates: You will receive one certificate indicating the date range for the past 3 years in which you are claiming credit for teaching. The start date will be the start date of your first activity submitted, and the end date will be the end date of the most recent activity submitted. If submitting activities that took place more than 3 years ago you will receive a separate certificate for these activities.

Poster Presentation(s) (5 credits per poster)
Credit may be claimed for preparing a poster presentation, as the first author, that is included in the published abstracts for a conference designated for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.

Documentation: Attach a copy of the page in the published activity documents that lists the author and poster abstract, accredited CME provider, AMA credit designation statement, title and date of activity.

Number of posters: _____ Total number of credits (posters x 5) _____

Certificate dates: If multiple posters are submitted for the past 3 years, you will receive one certificate indicating the date range in which you are claiming credit for poster presentations, with the start date being the presentation date of the earliest poster submitted, and the end date being the presentation date of the most recent poster submitted. If submitting poster presentations that took place more than 3 years ago you will receive a separate certificate for these activities.

Published Article(s) (10 credits per article)
Credit may be claimed for publishing, as a lead author (first listed), a peer-reviewed article in a journal included in the MEDLINE bibliographic database.

Documentation: Attach a reprint or copy of the page(s) of the journal, which includes the name of the author listed first, the name of the journal and date published.

Number of articles: _____ Number of credits (articles x 10): _____

Certificate dates: If multiple articles are submitted, you will receive one certificate indicating the date range for the past 3 years in which you are claiming credit for published articles, with the start date being the publication date of the earliest article submitted, and the end date being the publication date of the most recent article submitted. If submitting articles that took place more than 3 years ago you will receive a separate certificate for these activities.

Medically Related Advanced Degree (25 credits)
Obtaining a medically related advanced degree, such as a Masters in Public Health(MPH), is eligible for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit. This cannot be claimed if individual courses within the academic program were already certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.

Documentation: Attach a copy of the diploma or final transcript indicating the degree and date of completion.

Certificate dates: The activity date will match the date of completion on your submitted diploma or notification letter.

American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) member board certification and Maintenance of Certification (MOC®)
(60 credits for certifications that occurred on or after September 1, 2010) Visit www.abms.org to see if your Board qualifies.
